The Luckiest Hit of Our Lives!

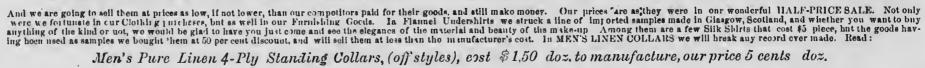

One of the largest failures that ever occurred in New York City was that of Selligman, May & Co., manufacturers of custom-made clothing. We were JUST IN TIME with to make offers to the trustees for the creditors, that we scarcely hoped to have accepted, so ridiculously low were they; but this has been a dull season in the

and minules on Broadway are like so many precious stones, and, to our surprise and great joy, our offers were accepted, and we scroped in enough to supply our Hopkinsville and Hartford stores at not a cent more than half the manufacturing cost, and now we propose to give our customers the henefit of this purchase—RUN THEM OFF WITH A BOOM and trust to fuck for another charce when they are gone.

Among them are some plain straight styles. Only one dezen will be sold to each customer. We have 100 dezen. Of course they won't last long. So first come, first served. Meu's New Style, 4-Ply Linen Tura-Down Collars, att sizes, worth 15 and 20c, our price 50 Fine Fancy Bordered, Good Size Handkerchiefs for 3 Cents.

Finest Silk Hats made (samples, but good as new) worth $5 to $7.50, our price $2.50.

We have wonderful bargains in every department and all we ask is an opportunity to show you our stock and then if we can't sell you and save you money besides, we'll step down and out and let some fellow in what can. Our Terms:-Cash Before Delivery

One price marked in plain figures and that lower than any living man can give you.

The casu was submitted to the court in the afternoon and taken under adviscment until the following mornlug. The opinion wes universa public generally that the velidity of the bouds would be sustained. The point raised by the opposition was that an old stetute of 1870, prohibierybody who takes a pride in his ting the voting on two railroad proptown should seize the opporiunity to ositions the same day, irad never becu repealed. The O. V. attorncy argued that the adoption of the revised stntutes later repealed this spacial statute. He further claimed that the C. & T. propositioo, through a mistake; had not been advertised long euough and consequently was not a legal subnilssiou.

On Saturday morning Judge Gince delivered his opinion orally, though handsome cottsgn on his South Main it was in writing. He held that the honds were invaild upon the ground that the I870 statute was still in force and also upon the further ground that the County Judge acting alone The wife of Mr. J. H. THE SULTAN.

A Sultan sat by Danube's tide And sore distressed atoud he cried; While like the waters to the sea His tears ran down both fast and free. A passing stranger said: "My friend, Why do those tears so fast descend?" "Aias 1" he sobbed, "I've lost all hope; I've lost my cake of Ivory Soap. No more in pride through town I'll go, With servants kind and Viziers sage,

But in disgrace must move about, By scornfol fingers pointed out.". 'Not so," the noble stranger eried "I have a piece and will divide;" And from his coat-tail pocket drew A eake and broke it fair in two. Then rose in joy the Sultan gray, And made that man a Turkish Bey, With garments clean and white as snow; And fifty wives to cheer his age.
